Introducing the HTC Desire™ and the Motorola Milestone™

Two new Android™ Smartphones that redefine the wireless realm.

The fully customizable HTC Desire has a 3.7" high-resolution Super TFT display and a 1GHz processor allowing you to enjoy full 3D gaming. With its sleek and stylish design, cutting edge multi-touch screen and 5 MP camera, the Android-powered Desire delivers a unique experience. The fully integrated GPS will geotag all your photos and videos as well as give you access to voice-powered turn by turn directions.

The Motorola Milestone is exactly what its name suggests: a milestone in wireless connectivity and capabilities. The Milestone delivers a richer web experience with multi-window browsing, smarter messaging options, Google™ integration, top of the line multi-media features, and the thinnest QWERTY keyboard slider available. If staying digitally connected all day everyday fits your lifestyle, the Milestone is your perfect phone.

PLUS, both phones have access to thousands of apps on the Android Market.
